

Dr. Jutta Emig

- |             |  |
|-------------|--|
| 1989        | PhD in food chemistry  |
| 1992        | Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety   |
| 2002- 2005  | Head of the team in the Federal Environment Ministry tasked with the implementation of gender mainstreaming into environment policies and strategies |
| 2003 – 2014 | Division Head “Fundamental Social and Policy Issues, Cooperation with NGOs”  |
| May 2014    | Division Head “International Chemical Safety, Sustainable Chemistry”   |

The Division she leads now is responsible for the German contribution to the international conventions regarding chemical safety (Minamata, Rotterdam, Stockholm) as well as for contributing to the Strategic Approach to International Chemicals Management (SAICM). In addition the Division promotes the development and implementation of sustainable chemistry on a national and international level.