

I. Introduction

"Indigenous peoples Global Forum for Sustainable Development", IPGFforSD in acronym is a Global Platform of indigenous peoples. It was created in 2019 with the members from Burundi, Cameroon, Botswana, Russia and Equator for contributing to the achievement of Sustainable Development Goals, SDGs in order to improve the living conditions of indigenous peoples. This platform is also committed to fight against the human rights violation of the discriminated and marginalized indigenous peoples. It is engaged to reinforce the enabling environment of indigenous peoples' organizations and to improve the empowerment of this indigenous community throughout organizations around the world.

II. Vision

An indigenous peoples' worldwide without discrimination of an encouraged and committed community to claim their rights fulfillment for their improvement of living-conditions

III. Mission

To strengthen through their organizations the indigenous peoples' capacity of acting on their collective and fundamental rights, which need to be recognized at local, national, regional and international level.

To enhance local, national, regional and international advocacy for having indigenous peoples' civil society organizations enabling environment in framework of building the solidarity and sustainable partnership with the governments, United Nations institutions, bilateral and multilateral institutions and other multiple stakeholders.

To improve the living conditions of indigenous peoples by using the indicators-based approach of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the 2030 agenda for effective development of these populations, children and youth included.

In the other hand, to support and initiate partnerships, actions, campaigns, information gathering and sharing, progressive ideas, leadership and Action Plan based on really community needs constitutes our corner stone advancing the indigenous peoples' way out from their issues.

Finally, to create the favorable conditions of this indigenous global platform to foster the productive collaboration with its members, the sympathetic members of civil society organizations, religious congregations and the private sector etc. to tackle together environmental and climate change issues.

IV. Values and Principle

Integrity, transparency, accountability, equity and commitment

Its principal, IPGFforSD is committed to participate at broad range in the other platforms as indigenous peoples' platform and as a member such as "Health Workers for All Coalition" (HW4AC, <https://www.healthworkersforallcoalition.org/joinus>), where IPGFforSD contributes for advancing indigenous peoples' solutions face the challenges which we can point out some of them for instance the lands, resources and territories, health issues.

IPGFforSD is engaged to raise indigenous peoples' voice at the UN instances and in the other institutions for instance the bilateral and multilateral institutions in the promotion and fulfillment framework of indigenous peoples' rights.

We also foster our members organisations to enhance the partnership with other organisations, which have the same mission even though they are not indigenous peoples' organisations. In that regard, IPGFforSD is motivated by its policies that its leaders they use to coordinate the members organisations, which are the constituencies of IPGFforSD.

V. Other relevant information of IPGFforSD:

This platform has contributed to sign many petitions and letters to reverse the worsening situation in the world.

One of the examples is CSM Letter to the CFS Chair on Food Systems Summit we signed for Civil Society and Indigenous Peoples' Mechanism for relations with the UN Committee on World Food Security.

We inform you that IPGFforSD is represented in the preparation of the High-Level Meeting (HLM) of the UN General Assembly on HIV/AIDS, which will hold on 08-10 June 2021 in accordance with the information of this link: <https://www.unaids.org/en/resources/presscentre/pressreleaseandstatementarchive/2021/february/high-level-meeting>. We thus really contribute for indigenous peoples because our populations are representative through IPGFforSD at the Multi-Stakeholder Task Force (MSTF) of the UN instance, and because of our presence, two indigenous peoples were a panelist and intervener during the UN Multi-Stakeholder Hearing (MSH) on 23 April 2021 at light of:

- H.E. Mr. Volkan Bozkir, President of the General Assembly during the seventy-fifth session
- H.E. Mr. Neville Gertze, Permanent Representative of Namibia to the UN, Co-facilitator on the preparations for the 2021 High- Level Meeting on HIV/AIDS
- Ms. Winnie Byanyima, Executive Director, UNAIDS
- Person openly living with HIV for opening segment.

Therefore, our commitment is to make our voice at the UN mechanism and at bilateral and multilateral institutions for fulfillment of indigenous peoples' rights aligned to the Sustainable Development- SDGs.

In solidarity, we will alleviate the ramifications face the different issues of indigenous peoples such as discrimination, poverty etc. face COVID-19's impacts.

We are committed to attend virtually the meeting to make understand the indigenous peoples' issues at local, national, regional and international level.
