

52nd United Nations Statistical Commission

Side Event

Overcoming the data gap on SDG 16: Tools and Approaches to accelerating data collection and reporting on SDG 16

18 February 2021,

Panelists Bio

Aparna Basnyat – UNDP

Aparna Basnyat is the UNDP Oslo Governance Centre Senior Research and Policy Advisor on SDG16. She has over 15 years of experience working on rule of law, human rights, and governance policy and programming at country, regional and global levels. She is currently coordinating the Oslo Governance Centre SDG 16 monitoring and measurement activities.

Enrico Bisogno – UNODC

Enrico Bisogno is UNODC's head of the Data Development and Dissemination Unit. His current areas of expertise include statistical production, analysis and dissemination on crime, violence, justice and access to it, corruption, drug use and drug trafficking, international migration, gender equality. Enrico accumulates 26 years' experience in statistics initiated in ISTAT (Italian Statistical Office).

Grace Steffan Sanico - OHCHR

Grace Sanico Steffan is a Human Rights Officer, since 2010, Ms. Steffan has worked closely with many organizations at the national, regional, and international levels, providing capacity building, training, and workshops on applying the frameworks on indicators and HRBAD. Before joining OHCHR, Grace had several years of experience working for the Philippines' national statistical system.

Malene Almeida – INECV

Malene Almeida is the coordinator of the Praia Group Secretariat and currently works on governance statistics, promoting exchange between the stakeholders and members and providing technical guidance to the execution of activities, in addition, Malene works in different project related to governance statistics and initiated her career in Deloitte as an analyst.

Nadia Touihri – INS Tunisia (Bio pending confirmation)

Ms. Nadia Touihri is a Statistician, Demographer, Director of Demographic Statistics. She started her career with the National Institute of Statistics (INS) in 2004. Her main task was to design, implement, supervise and operate censuses and household surveys within the Department of Demography and Social Statistics. In addition, she has been responsible for governance, peace and security statistics since 2013.

Nelson Guzmán Mendoza - Dygestic

Nelson Guzmán Mendoza serves as Deputy Director of the General Directorate of Statistics and Censuses in El Salvador. He has a 10+ years extensive experience in socioeconomic and political analysis, highlighting issues of human rights, gender, development, cooperation for development, public policies, among others.

Renice Bunde – Kenya National Bureau of Statistics

Renice Bunde is a Statistician working with Kenya National Bureau of Statistics in the Department of Governance Peace and Security Statistics. She holds both MSc and BSc in Applied Statistics.