CALL FOR CASE STUDIES

BIODIVERSITY POLICIES

—ADVANCING—

GENDER JUSTICE

Help us identify real-world examples of biodiversity policies that are delivering results for both women and nature.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR:

- Policies, regulations or governance frameworks that have been implemented over time
- Experiences from national, subnational, and local levels, including traditional and Indigenous authorities
- We are not seeking stand-alone projects, pilot initiatives, academic papers

EXAMPLES INCLUDE:

- Equitable land and resources rights
- Restoration initiatives embedded in policy
- Biodiversity finance mechanisms
- Community protocols
- Policies addressing gender-based violence

WE WANT TO LEARN:

- What worked
- What challenges emerged
- What outcomes were achieved for biodiversity and gender justice
